

3. Professional development of Teachers and Staff

3. Professional development of Teachers and Staff

The HoL will:

- a. Support each other in professional development by exchanging or participating in each other's in- service training programs, and sharing information related to this. (Training of all school teachers has been made mandatory in Affiliation Byelaws 2018, by providing for minimum number of days of training per year.
- b. Training is to be conducted preferably in association with the COEs of the Board or through any Teacher's training institute recognized by the Centre/UT/State/Regional Teachers Training Institutions.
- c. Promote academic enrichment through teacher exchange programmes, common science fairs, joint seminars, workshops, trainings, exchange of ideas, instructional strategies and assessment procedure .

WHY?

- i. to identify areas of academic concern among the Hub schools
- ii. to augment subject knowledge and teaching skills of practicing teachers
- iii. to help teachers learn new teaching techniques
- iv. to enable joyful and innovative transaction of curriculum in the classrooms
- v. to facilitate teachers' professional well-being
- vi. to create opportunities for teachers for their professional growth
- vii. to enable schools to exchange best practices in pedagogies
- viii. to promote Research among schools
- ix. to comply with the provisions of the Affiliation Bye- Laws

Teacher Development Programmes:

Some Suggestive Professional Development Activities:

